

Elementary

1. Diana was born in Sandringham.
2. When she was eight years old, her parents got divorced.
3. She was not good at school work.
4. Diana and Charles got married on 29 July 1981.
5. Diana gave birth to Prince William on 21 June, 1982.
6. She was very unhappy so she was ill. Her illness was called bulimia.
7. Her younger son, Harry was born on 15 September 1984.
8. She stopped living with Charles in 1992.
9. They got divorced in 1996.
10. She helped many charities.
11. In 1997 Diana and her new boyfriend, Dodi went to Paris.
12. Their driver went very fast, probably at 160 kilometres an hour because he wanted to get away from the photographers.
13. More than a million people came to London to remember Diana after her death.
14. She is buried on an island near her home.

Intermediate

1. On 31 August 1997, Diana had a bad car accident.
2. Dodi's bodyguard was the only to survive the accident because he used his seatbelt, despite the fact that he had been the closest to the impact.
3. Diana and Dodi were unbelted.
4. Diana was taken to the Pitié-Salpêtrière Hospital where they made several attempts to resuscitate her.
5. Her funeral took place on 6 September 1997 and nearly a billion people were watching it worldwide.
6. According to some theories, their driver was drunk and on drugs.
7. On 13 July 2006 an Italian magazine showed photos of Diana in her last moments, despite the fact that it had been previously banned.
8. Originally she was meant to be buried in the Spencer family vault, however, her brother changed his mind because of privacy and safety reasons.
9. She is buried on an island in an ornamental lake called The Oval.
10. There is a path leading up to her grave with 36 oak trees, marking each year of her life.
11. There are four black swans guarding the island.
12. There are water lilies in the water as this used to be her favourite flower.

Advanced

1. In April 1987, she was the first celebrity to be photographed touching an AIDS patient.
2. Bill Clinton gave a lecture on her charity work concerning Aids.
3. Diana made clandestine visits to hospitals where she would arrive unannounced, only to help people, to talk and listen to them.
4. In January 1997 she visited Angola in the course of a de-mining tour.
5. She toured de-mining projects run by the HALO Trust.
6. She is believed to have influenced the signing of the Ottawa Treaty.
7. China, India, North Korea, Pakistan, Russia and the United States were the ones to produce and stockpile the largest numbers of landmines.