

Elementary

1. BRING SOMEONE UP: Educate someone, rear someone, raise someone,
2. CALL SOMEONE UP: Phone someone up, give someone a call, telephone someone, give someone a ring, ring someone up
3. COME BACK: Turn back, get back, go back, return

1. bring up / raise / rear / educate a child
2. bring up / raise / rear a family / daughter / son
3. raise / rear animals / sheep / chickens
4. be brought up / raised / reared in Scotland / Oxford
5. be brought up / raised / reared on Indian food / Hollywood movies

1. call sy (up) / ring sy (up) / phone sy (up) / telephone someone about something
2. call / ring / phone / telephone for a taxi / ambulance / doctor
3. call / ring / phone / telephone the doctor/ fire brigade / police
4. call (up) / ring (up) / phone (up) / telephone for details / information

1. return / come back / go back / get back to/from/with something
2. come back / go back / get back outside/ upstairs/ down
3. return / come back / go back / get back / turn back again
4. return / come back / go back / get back home/ to work
5. return / come back / get back safely

1. Pihenten és boldogan jöttek vissza az útkról.
2. Visszatérve munkából a házat üresen találtam.
3. Csak tegnap értünk vissza az utazásunkról.
4. Mikor mész vissza Ausztráliába?
5. Azt hiszem, eltévedtünk. Vissza kell fordulnunk.
6. A nénikéje nevelte föl.
7. Dél-Afrikában nevelkedett.
8. A nagyim sok csirkét tart/tenyészt.
9. Az oroszok csak kb 3 kisoroszlánt tudnak felnevelni.
10. Felhívtam, és megkérdeztem, hogy van.
11. Ha eltévedsz, csak hívj.
12. Holnapután felhívlak.
13. Hívd fel Mike-ot, és kérdezd meg, hogy akar-e jönni.
14. Felhívott, hogy bocsánatot kérjen.
15. Felhívtam a rendőrséget, mert meg voltam ijedve.

1. She went to the kitchen and came back with two glasses of milk.
2. The Prime Minister returned from his trip two days ago.
3. When did you get back last night?
4. I made a cup of tea and went back to bed.
5. The weather got so bad that we had to turn back.
6. They brought up their children very strictly.
7. Their children were educated in Spain.
8. My uncle raised little pigs.
9. Her parents reared her on vegetables.
10. She called up her husband from the station.
11. If you forget something, just give me a call.
12. She promised to give me a ring but she forgot it.
13. I phoned up the bank this morning.
14. Would you ring up the station to find out about train times?
15. When can I telephone for information?

Intermediate

1. ADMIT TO: confess to, fess up to, own up to
2. ASK FOR: request, appeal for, apply for, call for
3. CARE FOR: attend to, look after, take care of, tend to

1. to freely/openly confess/ admit to sg
2. to readily/frankly admit to sg
3. to be prepared/ashamed/embarrassed to admit / confess
4. to be afraid/reluctant to admit / own up

1. to ask for / call for / appeal for something from somebody
2. to formally ask for / call for / request / apply for something
3. to repeatedly ask for / call for / request / appeal for something

1. look after / take care of / care for / tend (to) the sick
2. look after / take care of / care for the children/the elderly/ an elderly relative
3. look after / take care of yourself
4. tend/ attend to a wound

1. Bevallotta, hogy ő lopta el az autót.
2. Beismerte a gyilkosságot.
3. Gyerünk, valljál! Tudom, hogy van valami, amit nem mondasz el nekem.
4. Senki nem ismerte el az ablaktörést.
5. Jodie egy gitárt kért a születésnapjára.
6. Én egy új útlevelet igényeltem.
7. Az áldozat családja segítséget kért ahhoz, hogy kiderítsék, ki a gyilkos.
8. A csoport a választások bojkottját kérte.
9. Ő néhány speciális igényű gyereket gondoz.
10. Már kiszolgálják?
11. Ők már elég idősek ahhoz, hogy vigyázzanak magukra.
12. A sérülteket már ellátták.

1. She admitted to being strict to her kids.
2. I must confess to knowing nothing about computers.
3. How many stolen cars did they fess up to?
4. The kids owned up to throwing eggs at the neighbours.
5. I asked the waiter for the bill.
6. My son applied for a place at Warwick University.
7. The government appealed for calm.
8. The other directors called for his resignation.
9. The company wants to care for the environment.
10. I need someone to attend to my granny.
11. Would you look after my bag for a minute?
12. I'll attend to the kids, and you'll attend to the mother.

Advanced

1. BREAK DOWN: crash, go down, go wrong
2. CHECK OVER: go over, examine, look over, check through
3. CHEER UP: brighten up, lift, perk up, take heart

1. the TV/ the DVD player / my watch has broken / gone wrong
2. the washing machine has broken down / gone wrong

3. my car has broken down
  4. my computer has gone wrong / crashed
  5. the computer system has crashed / gone down
-
1. check (over/through) / examine sg to see if/whether ....
  2. check (over/through) / examine / go over / look over sg carefully
  3. check (over/through) / examine / go over sg thoroughly
  4. check over / examine closely / regularly / daily
-
1. brighten (up) / cheer up / take heart / lift / perk up at sg
  2. take heart from sg
  3. his spirits/mood brightened/ lifted
-
1. Lerobbantunk az autópályán.
  2. Elvesztettem minden munkám, amikor a gépem elromlott.
  3. Az orvos szeretne megvizsgálni.
  4. Nézd át alaposan a jegyzeteidet.
  5. Átfutom ismét az adatokat, hogy biztosan jól legyenek.
  6. Az autót átnéztük egy szerelővel, mielőtt megvesszük.
  7. Úgy tűnik szombat óta jobb lett a kedve.
  8. Felvidult, amikor azt mondták, hogy velük mehet.
  9. Feldobódtál reggel óta.
-
1. We broke down twice on the way home.
  2. Save everything as often as possible because you can lose everything if your computer goes down.
  3. Before the trip I had my car checked over.
  4. Tim spent half of his day checking through all the files.
  5. Go over your work carefully before handing it in.
  6. He looked over the painting carefully.
  7. She bought some chocolate to cheer herself up.
  8. We all brightened up when it turned out that our dog is not fatally ill.
  9. A shower will perk you up.