POLICEMAN: Who was in the house last night?

SIR JEE: I was alone in the house.

POLICEMAN: How did the burglar get into the castle?

SIR JEE: Through the window.

POLICEMAN: Did you hear anything in the night?

SIR JEE: No, I didn't. I was asleep.

POLICEMAN: Did you see anything?

SIR JEE: No, I didn't.

POLICEMAN: What did the burglar take?

SIR JEE: All the silver spoons, forks, knives, plates and cups, and the portrait frame.

POLICEMAN: What happened to the portrait?

SIR JEE: The burglar stole its frame, and wrote something on it, but I didn't understand what they wrote.

1. Why were you alone in the castle on Christmas Eve?
2. Why was the window open on a cold night in December?
3. Why didn't you hear that the burglars made noise with that heavy portrait frame?
4. Why did the burglars write that thing on the portrait?
5. Why didn't they take the picture as well?
